

MEDIA RELEASE

“HELP BREAK THE CHAINS”

THE DIVAS OF JAZZ & GOSPEL COME TOGETHER FOR A WORTHY NIGHT AND A SPECIAL CAUSE – PROMOTING THE WORK OF KAIROS & THE SALVATION ARMY

We are proud to have secured the talents of 4 of Australia's top female jazz and gospel artists along with a wonderful band of musicians for a special concert event and a special cause.

Artists include: Nicky Crayson, Joy Yates, Jacki Cooper and Sancha Prowse along with the Itty Bitty Big Band featuring John Morrison

This will be a top-quality night of entertainment - and with the generous support of those involved – most of the ticket receipts (and donations) will go to the cause and benefit the growth and those we serve.

Kairos, and the Salvo's, work with the men and women in prison, and their families, to change lives through positive choices.

A rare (and value-for-money) chance to hear some of Sydney's best female singers and musos in action in one line-up. The atmosphere will be relaxed, the music great and the cause worthy of your promotion and attendance

Light refreshments for sale at intermission.

HELP BREAK THE CHAINS: a great night for a great cause!

Monday 25 June, 7.00 - 9.30 pm (doors open from 6.30)

The Salvation Army Congress Hall, 140 Elizabeth St, Sydney City

(parking just down the road at the multi-story car park at corner of Goulburn Street and a short walk from trains and buses))

Tickets: $25 per person, $22 for groups of 8 or more, $16 for pensioners and children 16 and under

Available (from 25 May)

- In store at Koorong Book Stores - West Ryde, Penrith and Gosford
- The Salvation Army Congress Hall (between 9am & 4pm weekdays)
- By phone (credit card only) – by calling Kairos National Promotions 0411 967 693 between 9am & 6pm weekdays)
- At the door if any availability

For more information - visit the website kairos.org.au, ring Ian, Kairos National Promotions on 0411 967 693 - or email kairos.pr@optusnet.com.au (subject line “Help Break the Chains”).